Category:Alien vs. Predator games Category:Video game franchises Category:Predator video gamesQ: Convert all bits of an integer to '1's & '0's of a string in JavaScript Is there any method or function available to convert all bits of an integer to a string in JavaScript? For eg.: Let, string = 101111001; I want string = '00011011'(here no string truncation is done.) A: It's the bitwise-and operator, which takes one number and a mask, and returns a new number that is just the result of anding the bits in the two. 0 & 1 = 0 2 & 1 = 3 13 & 1 = 8 51 & 1 = 52 33 & 4 = 1 100 & 4 = 0 124 & 1 = 125 So if you have a number you want to find the mask for, you can do String.fromCharCode(0x100 | (--number)) ... which just pads the number with zeroes if necessary to get the length of the mask. it is not generally conceded that the state of -2- 04-17-00714-CR
