Forager is a new game "Resource Tycoon" Inspired by the style of "Overlord" King of the universe hack is the official mod for both .Q: Is it possible to conditionally assign a property in an object? Suppose I have a function like this: `function someFunction(myObj) { // some logic myObj.someProp = "someValue"; }` But someProp doesn't exist, and I want to only assign the value if a condition is true. For example: `function someFunction(myObj) { // some logic if (condition) { myObj.someProp = "someValue"; } }` Is this possible? A: `function someFunction(myObj) { // some logic if (condition) { myObj.someProp = "someValue"; } }` Yes, it is possible. The conditional can be inside the function. It will look something like this. Cristiano Ronaldo will have two training sessions in Manchester this week ahead of the trip to Ukraine. The Portuguese has also completed his medical at the Manchester club, The Real Madrid No.7 is on the verge of completing a world record move away from his current club and his first outing in the English Premier League will be a Red Devils one. The 32-year-old played in United's 2-2 draw with Aston Villa last weekend and has been working on building-up the stamina after his hectic schedule. Having been the best player in the world for a couple of years now, it could be said Cristiano Ronaldo's career has reached a high-point. With two Spanish La Liga titles to his name and the Champions League tucked under his belt as well, Ronaldo is at the height of his career. However, Real Madrid's decision to sell the Cristiano Ronaldo image and to bring in Gareth Bale as another attacking option now has changed the Portuguese's mentality. Ronaldo himself admitted as much when he said he felt "completely free" of the Old Lady.
